The Curse of the Silver Knife

👁 137 ✓ 1 ★ 9

Chapter 1 by johnny rock (johnnyroc04)

Whilst investigating the death of a local navigator, a brave fishmonger called Harry Parker uncovers a legend about a supernaturally-cursed, silver knife circulating throughout London. As soon as anyone uses the knife, he or she has exactly 80 days left to live.

The doomed few appear to be ordinary people during day to day life, but when photographed, they look distorted. A marked person feels like an important badger to touch.

Chapter 2 by Jhoana Castillo

A rainy night, a burglar entered in a mansion with the clear purpose of stealing everything of value he found and run away without a trace.

He climbed up the stairs trying to do the least possible noise, kill someone wasn't in his plans. But just when he was keeping jewelry, the light of the next room turned on.

Quickly, he took a silver knife he found inside the safe, closed it, grabbed his back pack with the money and the jewelry, and ran.

The owner of the mansion was calling the police and the burglar knew he had to do something to prevent that it arrived. Nervous and with the knife, he entered in the owner's room, who was giving the adress to the police, for he had killed him, one, two, thrice and with his work finished, he could grab

After 80 days, the police found him, and the silver knife in his hand.
